The Brisbane Chevra Kadisha is run by volunteers who give freely of their time, day or night by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Meeting with the family</li><li>• Coordinating with George Hartnett Funerals and Brisbane City Council cemetery management</li><li>• Conducting the Tahara</li><li>• Supervising the funeral and burial and overseeing arrangements for the monument.</li></ul> In addition, we maintain important infrastructure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Brisbane Chevra Kadisha Chapel and the Jewish section at Mt Gravatt cemetery</li><li>• The Anzac Memorial Garden, recently constructed in front of the Chapel for members of the Jewish community to use when visiting the cemetery</li><li>• The Martyrs' Memorial at Mt Gravatt cemetery (recently refurbished)</li><li>• Toowong Jewish cemetery grounds and other historic Queensland Jewish burial grounds</li><li>• All relevant insurances for property, equipment and volunteers.</li></ul> To maintain our services, we need broad community support and membership, as well as funding from donations and bequests. Our fees are kept low to ensure people can join. The cost of a funeral can become a major burden if that cost is not planned for. While reduced BCK fees apply to members (with five years' continuous membership), the funeral costs paid by the family or estate are significant. In fact, these fees can total around $12,000 to $13,000 at the time of the funeral and a further $3,000 to $9,000 to complete the monument (within a year in keeping with Jewish tradition). Details are on our website http://bck.net.au or available on request. We ask community members to consider these issues when reviewing financial and insurance arrangements with trusted advisors.

Please support the Brisbane Chevra Kadisha by: Annual membership, donations & bequests, planning for the future, making your wishes known, ensuring details of your Jewish name and heritage are known.
