WHY YOU SHOULD PLAN AHEAD

The cost of a funeral can become a major burden if not anticipated. Funeral costs paid by the family or estate are significant, and can total up to $11,000 at the time of the funeral, with further outlays for the monument. Funeral costs include a component to help cover Tahara, Chapel and other Brisbane Chevra Kadisha (BCK) costs. While this is reduced for members (5 years continuous), overall costs remain high as can be seen in the table below.

In the Brisbane Jewish Community, funerals are coordinated by BCK and supported by George Hartnett Metropolitan Funerals (GHMF), Kelvin Grove. Funerals are held at Jewish section 4C in the Brisbane City Council's Mount Gravatt Cemetery – at our dedicated Chapel and the graveside.

Pre-planning can help to spread and reduce funeral costs. Burial plots can be pre-purchased at the Mt Gravatt Cemetery office (by appointment and with BCK pre-authorisation). Funerals can be pre-paid. The Guardian Funeral Plan available through GHMF (and embraced by the Australian industry) provides for fixed prepayment at today's prices regardless of when the funeral is held.

TOTAL FUNERAL COSTS	$11,180 (less member discounts)	PLUS: Where there is no existing monument a monument bond of $2,000 is also payable (there may already be a monument in the case of a second burial in a joint or deep grave). The bond is refundable following monument completion to the estate / family or to Jones & Travers (a business unit of MMS Memorials).

STONEMASON FEES

Mt Gravatt 4C is a monumental cemetery governed by BCC and BCK rules. A number of stonemasons are authorised to operate in BCC cemeteries. However, BCK, over a long period, has worked closely with Jones & Travers (business unit of MMS Memorials). This helps to ensure accuracy of Hebrew inscriptions, quick response (eg opening of monuments for a second burial), consistency, high quality and reasonable pricing.

Fees charged by Jones & Travers / MMS Memorials (approximate):

Full Granite Single Monument*	$8,000	Full Granite Double Monument*	$13,500
*BCK monuments are now full granite ie both headstone and ledgers (platform over the grave). Granite is the most effective material for tombstones and high concrete costs make granite the best option for ledgers.
